Yean Filippovitch Feodorov, Chief of VOKS in Tehran, has been establishing friendly contacts with prominent Tehran merchants and Government employees, and has been helped in these activities by two members of the Tudeh Party, Keshavarz (fnu)* and Alavizadeh (fnu).

On several occasions just prior to 1 March 1951, the newly-appointed Governor of Resht, accompanied by Keshavarz, visited Fedorov. [redacted] subsequent to their last meeting (and immediately prior to the Governor's departure for Resht) Keshavarz stated to Fedorov that the Governor "is our man."

Comment. Not Dr. Feridun Keshavarz, although possibly a relative.
